

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

LA CHERTOSA WINS 4 OUT OF 4 GOLD MEDALS AT MONTEREY!

Sonoma, CA. – March 13, 2017

Sam Sebastiani and La Chertosa Wines is pleased to announce that the highly-coveted 2017 Monterey International Wine Competition has awarded GOLD medals to all four of our entries!

All four of the gold-medal winning wines from La Chertosa are small-lot, single-varietal, and single-vineyard wines in both Amador County and the Sonoma Valley. These award-winning wines are available for purchase now on the La Chertosa website at <http://www.lachertosawines.com>.

GOLD MEDAL & BEST BARBERA: 2014 La Chertosa Winemaker Remembrance Reserve Barbera ($45/168 cases produced)
GOLD MEDAL: 2015 La Chertosa Reserve Chardonnay ($25/680 cases produced)
GOLD MEDAL: 2014 La Chertosa Fra Paolo Reserve Zinfandel ($35/198 cases produced)
GOLD MEDAL: 2010 La Chertosa Reserve Sangiovese ($35/187 cases produced)

Sam was exceptionally pleased the 2014 La Chertosa Winemaker Remembrance Reserve Barbera was awarded 2014 La Chertosa Winemaker Remembrance Reserve Barbera at the competition. “This Barbera is one of the best I’ve ever tasted. It’s really over the top!”

La Chertosa wines are produced primarily from grapes grown in red Tuscan series soils and aged moderately in new and young oak barrels. Their style is described as “Old World” because the wines are balanced, harmonic and wonderfully pleasing with foods.

La Chertosa wines can be purchased at fine wine locations in California, Colorado and Nebraska or by visiting www.lachertosawines.com.
